

Cultural Awareness Training is aimed at interested Health Professionals

Date Tuesday, 31st October 2017
Time 6:00pm for 6:30pm sharp-8:30pm
Dinner will be provided.
Venue Boathouse by the Lake
Grevillea Park, Menindee Drive,
Barton ACT

Learning Outcomes:

- Distinguish between cultural awareness, cultural safety and cultural competence
- Recognise the need for correctly identifying the Indigenous status of patients
- Identify steps your practice can take to improve cultural awareness within your workplace
- Implement step-by-step procedures for identifying and recording the Indigeneity of all patients within your practice
- Increase your awareness of some of the causes of poor health among the Indigenous population of Australia and learn about local statistics

This activity will be submitted to RACGP for Category 2 activity points in the QI & CPD Program for 2017 - 2019 Triennium.

Trainer - The Yurauna Centre:

CIT's Yurauna Centre is collaborating with Capital Health Network to offer ongoing cultural awareness training throughout 2017 to the ACT health community.

The Centre is committed to offering a unique holistic approach working with individuals to reach their potential and developing opportunities to enable Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to access employment opportunities in their chosen fields.

Yurauna is dedicated to meeting community and industry demand by developing and delivering customised Indigenous specific training. Its main objective is to facilitate access to further education, and in doing so, prepare individuals for the workforce and retraining in a culturally appropriate environment which is committed to individual needs.

Registration:

Please register for this event online here.

Policies:

Please visit our Registration Policies page at <https://www.chnact.org.au/registration-policies> for event policies relating to this event.

For further information, please contact events on 02 6287 8099.